A screenshot of the 'Contact Information & Preferences' page in cPanel Accelerated 2. The page has a blue header with the cPanel logo and 'Accelerated 2' text. Below the header, there's a 'HOME' link and 'HELP' and 'LOGOUT' buttons. The main content area is titled 'Contact Information & Preferences' and includes a 'Video Tutorial' link. The first section is for adding a contact email, with a text box containing 'whittond@sheridanc.on.ca'. The second section is for 'Contact Preferences', where several options are checked: 'My contact email address changes', 'If the above option is disabled, notify me.', 'My account approaches its disk quota', 'Any of my account's email accounts approaches or is over quota', and 'My account's password changes'. A 'Save' button is at the bottom of the form. The footer contains links for Home, Trademarks, Help, Documentation, Contact, and Log Out.

Go back to preferences and click on Change Password – change it to something memorable.

This will cause Wordpress to set up:

The image shows the WordPress installation screen. At the top center is the WordPress logo, a blue circle with a white 'W'. Below the logo, the word 'Welcome' is displayed in a large, bold, sans-serif font. Underneath 'Welcome' is a paragraph of text: 'Welcome to the famous five-minute WordPress installation process! Just fill in the information below and you'll be on your way to using the most extendable and powerful personal publishing platform in the world.' Below this paragraph is the section header 'Information needed' in a bold, sans-serif font. Under 'Information needed' is a line of text: 'Please provide the following information. Don't worry, you can always change these settings later.' Below this text are five form fields. The first is 'Site Title' with the value 'Test site'. The second is 'Username' with the value 'galaszki'. Below the 'Username' field is a small line of text: 'Usernames can have only alphanumeric characters, spaces, underscores, hyphens, periods, and the @ symbol.' The third is 'Password' with the value '3Awwz9G87v73fUo^2s'. To the right of the password field is a button labeled 'Hide'. Below the password field is a green bar with the word 'Strong'. Below the green bar is a line of text: 'Important: You will need this password to log in. Please store it in a secure location.' The fourth is 'Your E-mail' with the value 'first.last@sheridancollege.ca'. Below the email field is a line of text: 'Double-check your email address before continuing.' The fifth is 'Privacy' with a checked checkbox and the text 'Allow search engines to index this site'. At the bottom left of the form is a button labeled 'Install WordPress'.
